E e Numb. 735.

The Daily Courant.

Wedneſday, Auguſt 23 1704.

From the Paris Gazette, dated Auguſt 23.

Madrid, Auguſt 5.

THE King has nominated the Count de Sant Iſtevan de Gormaz to go to France in Quality of Envoy Extraordinary, to congratulate the Royal Family on the Birth of the Duke of Bretagne. Yeſterday, Dom Luca Spinola, Son of the Duke of St. Pierre, brought the News of the taking of Vercelli; for which Illuminations and great Rejoycings have been made, which will be continued three days. By a Courier diſpatch'd from Ciudad-Rodrigo we have Advice, that the Enemies having drawn together about 18000 Men of Regular and Militia Troops, have appear'd in a Body near Almeida. The Duke of Berwick, on the firſt Notice of it, drew together ſome of the Troops that were in Quarters, viz. the Regiments of Horſe of the Queen and of Milan; and 3 of Foot, Spaniards; making together 1500 Foot and as many Horſe. The Marqueſs de Thoy march'd at the ſame time from la Zarza, with the Troops under his Command: 4000 Foot march'd likewiſe from Badajox, with 1000 Horſe, and ſeveral Mules loaded with Ammunition. The Duke of Berwick being advanc'd with 400 Horſe to Argannan, diſtributed 200 into ſeveral Poſts to obſerve the Enemies. The 26th Ult. a Party of 26 Spaniards met one of 60 Portugueze Horſe, charg'd them and put them to Flight, killing 18, and taking 5 with 13 Horſes. Some days before, the Enemies to the Number of 1000 Horſe, made an Incurſion towards Barcarota, but being inform'd ſome Troops were drawing together to march againſt them, they retir'd. Collonel Don Juan de Paz has ſurpriz'd a Party of 60 Men, of which he kill'd 19 and took 11 Priſoners. By an Expreſs that arriv'd to day we learn, that the Enemies after having put ſome Troops and Ammunition into Almeida are retir'd. 'Tis advis'd from Carthagena, that the Enemies Fleet was ſeen to paſs by that Place towards the Levant, but afterwards return'd back again towards the Streights.

From the Amſterdam Gazette, dated Aug. 22.

From the Camp at Creſcentino, Auguſt 5. We are in doubt ſtill what Enterprize the Enemy will go upon next: Tho' they give out, that they will advance towards us with part of their Army to obſerve us, and even to attack us in our Camp; and that in the mean time, the reſt of their Troops will paſs the Po and endeavour to enter Piemont. A great Number of their Men are Sick, and ſo are many of his Royal Highneſs's, but the Imperialiſts have but few Sick. The Prince of Lorrain is gone this Morning with 1500 Horſe to make a Forrage towards Trino.

From the Leid. & Amſt. Gazettes, of Aug. 21 & 22.

Turin, Auguſt 8. His Royal Highneſs has caus'd his Camp to be intrench'd more ſtrongly, and Palliſadoes to be planted where 'tis moſt proper, that he may be in a Condition to repulſe the Duke of Vendome, ſhould he attempt to attack him in his Camp. His Royal Highneſs has alſo order'd the 3 Bridges that are making on the Doria Baltea to be finiſh'd as expeditiouſly as is poſſible; and has reſolv'd to withdraw the Garriſon out of Chivazzo, and cauſe the Fortifications of that Place to be demoliſh'd. He has reinforc'd the Garriſon of Chieri. All Frenchmen dwelling in this City, are commanded to depart out of it; and this Evening two Secretaries of the Marqueſs de Pianezza had like Orders given them.

From the Leiden Gazette, dated Auguſt 26.

Turin, Auguſt 12. This Morning the Enemies Army commanded by the Duke of Vendome appear'd drawn up in Order of Battle in the Plain of Trino, with a great Train of Artillery. Whether they will attack our Army in their Camp, or march to lay Siege to Ivrea, is yet uncertain. His Royal Highneſs has order'd a great Quantity of Forrage to be provided here; All the Soldiers that were ſent hither Sick, and have been cur'd, are return'd to the Camp. Yeſterday two Italian Officers in our Duke's Service, were brought hither fetter'd, under a Guard, and put into our Citadel: They ſtand charg'd with holding ſecret Intelligence with the Duke of Vendome. The Marqueſs of St. Thomas, Miniſter of State, is at the Point of Death.

From the Paris Gazette, dated Auguſt 23.

From the Camp near Vercelli, Auguſt 9. The Duke of Vendome has been indiſpos'd a few days, but is perfectly recover'd. We have Intelligence from Turin of the 5th inſtant, that the Duke of Savoy has given Orders for the Fortifications of Ivrea to be made as ſtrong as poſſible with all Expedition; and that the Governour and Officers of Vercelli who ſign'd the Capitulation are to be try'd for it. There come over to us from the Enemies Camp 8 or 10 Deſerters daily, and ſometimes 25 or 30, ſome of them Officers.

From the Paris Gazette a la Main, dated Aug. 23.

Paris, Auguſt 23. We have Advice, that the Duke of Vendome is march'd with his Army towards Ivrea; he has 39 Battallions and 80 Squadrons; and the Duke de la Feuillade has detach'd 8 Battallions from the Body he commands, to joyn him. Count Albergotti is left over againſt Trino on the other ſide the Po, with 20 Battallions and a like Number of Squadrons. Monſieur de Langalarie is in Trino with 4 Battallions; and Monſieur de Toralba is in Vercelli with 4 Battallions and 8 Squadrons. The Duke of Savoy continues encamp'd at Creſcentino, and upon the leaſt Motion he ſhall make to oppoſe the Duke of Vendome's paſſing the Doria Baltea, Count Albergotti is order'd to lay Siege to Verrua; if the Duke of Vendome be not oppos'd in his paſſing that River he will beſiege Ivrea, which is ſaid to be garriſon'd with but 5 Battallions, and to be a Place of no great Strength.

From the Paris Gazette, dated Auguſt 23.

Paris, Auguſt 23. We have Advice from Port Louis, that that the King's Frigate the Phelypeux had brought in thither an Engliſh Frigate of 26 Guns: And that the 15th two Ships belonging to the Eaſt-India Company arriv'd there, with the lading of an Engliſh Ship which they took in the Streights of Malacca homeward bound from China, where the ſaid lading coſt 500000 Livres. Letters from Breſt of the 11th inſtant adviſe, that the Sieur de Guay Trouin, Commander of the Jaſon, in company with the Auguſt, met the 4th of this Month an Engliſh Man of War of 58 Guns, convoying a Fleet to Newfoundland: the Auguſt took two Ships of that Fleet; and the Sieur du Guay Trouin (after a Fight of an Hour and a half,) took the Man of War, on board which was the Governour of St. John's in Newfoundland, and 20 other Paſſingers.

Deale, Auguſt 21. Part of the homeward bound Fleet from Oporto and Viana, is juſt now arriv'd in the Downes, under convoy of Her Majeſty's Ships the Rupert and Hazardeux. The outward bound, and Hamburghers with their Convoys, are forc'd back by contrary Winds; as are alſo the Falkland and Oxford.
